CENTER FOR HUMAN SECURITY STUDIES (CHSS)

(Think Tank on Internal Security & External Affairs of India)

(Non-Governmental, Non-Political, Non-Profit Research Organisation)

(Reg. No. 434/2010, Andhra Pradesh Societies Registration Act 2001 Hyderabad)

Logo: The Rising Sun spreads its rays of knowledge over the uncharted oceans and untreaded paths, as in the miracle of a seed unfurling into leaf, growing beyond all barriers where new perspectives enhance vision and new perceptions emerge to hop into ideas and ideas into reality and herald a new dawn in understanding the concept of "Vasudaiva Kutumbikam" where the whole world is one family.

Aim: The Center for Human Security Studies aims to undertake studies and analysis on various issues of concern at the National and international level with a view to formulate and present options for a vibrant Human Security Policy.

Objectives: The Center for Human Security Studies is a non-governmental, non-political and non-profit Think Tank registered under the Andhra Pradesh Societies registration act 2001. The objectives of the Center

- » Provide constructive inputs for policy formulation.
- » Conduct studies and research in the area of national security interests of India spanning across the internal security, counter-terrorism mechanisms, maritime and aviation security of India to naxal management and India's external affairs.
- » Study and evaluate factors affecting India's national security and, focus on vulnerable areas and suggest suitable counter measures in the formulation of national security strategy.
- » Carry out studies of International Relations and geo-political factors of strategic significance with a view to suggest different CBMs and enhance international cooperation among comity of nations as also to achieve a stable security environment.
- » Initiate, undertake, organise and facilitate study courses, conferences, seminars, lectures and research in matters relating to various aspects of Human security with a global perspective and to offer fellowships, prizes, scholarships and stipends in furtherance of the objectives of the centre.
- » Promote awareness and initiate public debate on the importance of Human security and to provide a new dimension to the concept of development.
- » Study the concept of National security vis-a-vis Human Security with the objective of disseminating knowledge to the public at large.
- » Promote awareness among the public about the importance of understanding the dynamics of global security, polity and economy.
- » Study and evaluate factors affecting India's human security and focus on vulnerable areas to suggest suitable solutions in the formation of a comprehensive Human security strategy at national and international levels.
- » Associate with government departments, educational institutions and other national and international organizations with similar objectives.
- » Establish and maintain libraries and information services to facilitate study of national security and Human Security issues and undertake, facilitate and provide for the publication of newsletters, research papers and books which includes threat assessment reports, alert letters and finally national security strategy with a vision.
